

Algebra Session

Reminiscing about some of the most important results of Rudolf Maier's works.

Angel Carocca

(Departamento de Matemática, Universidad de La Frontera)

In memory and tribute to Professor Rudolf Maier

Monday, February 05, 2024.

14h - 14h50

Math Department- Auditorium

Abstract.

The purpose of this talk is to recall and comment some of the most outstanding results obtained by R. Maier, which have inspired other researchers in their studies on permutability and subnormality of subgroups of finite groups.